Our Services

A clinically sophisticated healthcare navigator

Our care management expert, Mr. Tansel Depmeci, with more than 16 years of experience, provides science-backed health advice and logistical care coordination. He guides our patients through the healthcare system in Istanbul, ensuring they receive the best care and outcomes throughout their medical journey.

About Mr. Tansel Depmeci /Personal Healthcare Navigator

Throughout his 15-year career in men's health, Tansel has held positions as the Men's Health Turkey lead at Boston Scientific and Coloplast. He now offers specialized consulting and services to international patients seeking men's health treatments in Turkey.

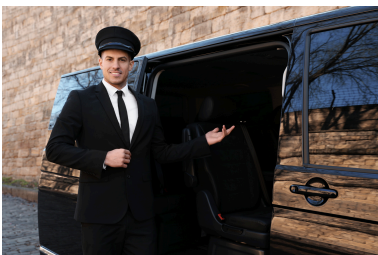

➤ Transfer and Accommodation

Leave it all with us! We arrange your trip and book your accommodation, looking for the options that best suit your budget. This service is completely optional, some of our international patients prefer to organize their trips themselves. In that case, we are always ready to advise and resolve any doubts that may arise.
